AURORA TEACHER CHARGED FOR ALLEGED CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE

June 5, 2019

An Aurora school teacher is accused of sexually abusing two children he knew.

Kane County State's Attorney Joe McMahon has charged 58-year-old Luis R. Mora with the offenses of:

- Aggravated criminal sexual abuse, Class 2 felony, 2 counts

Kane County prosecutors allege that between August 2018 and May 2019 Mora made sexual contact with two victims, both of whom are 8 years old. Mora knows the victims.

Mora appeared Tuesday, June 4, in Kane County bond court. Kane County Associate Judge Keith Johnson set Mora's bail at $75,000 with 10 percent ($7,500) to apply for bond. Judge Johnson set Mora's next court appearance for 9 a.m. June 19, 2019, in Courtroom 313 at the Kane County Judicial Center.

If Mora posts bond, he is prohibited from having contact with the victims, and he is prohibited from having unsupervised contact with anyone younger than 14. In addition he must surrender his passport to the Kane County Sheriff's Office.

The Kane County Child Advocacy Center investigated the case with assistance from the Aurora Police Department. The case remains under investigation. Anyone with information should call the Kane County Child Advocacy Center at (630) 208-5160.

The charges against Mora are not proof of guilt. Mora is presumed innocent and is entitled to a fair trial in which it is the state's burden to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

Luis R. Mora: age 58 (d.o.b. 2-20-1961), of the 1500 block of Golden Oaks Parkway, Aurora, Illinois. Case No. 19CF1058.
