KANE COUNTY NOW ACCEPTING CORONAVIRUS RELIEF FUND APPLICATIONS FROM SMALL BUSINESSES, NONPROFIT GROUPS

September 17, 2020

Kane County will accept applications from small businesses and nonprofit organizations for Coronavirus Relief Funds after webinars are completed on Friday, Sept. 18, 2020.

This is the planned expansion of the relief fund application process, which began in early September for municipalities, fire protection districts, townships, park districts, municipal libraries and the Kane County Forest Preserve.

The U.S. Department of Treasury allocated more than $92 million in coronavirus relief funds to Kane County through the CARES Act to ease the impact of the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic in our communities. To help distribute the funds, the Kane County Board established the CARES Act Allocation Committee under the direction of State's Attorney Joe McMahon and in collaboration with the county's Office of Community Reinvestment.

A recording of the webinar will be made available on the program's Web page.

For information about the webinar, funding and how to apply, visit Kane County's Coronavirus Relief Fund page at <https://www.countyofkane.org/Pages/CRF.aspx>.

The page will be updated as new information is made available.
