ANSWERS TO CORONAVIRUS RELIEF FUND FAQs NOW POSTED ON KANE COUNTY WEB PAGE

September 25, 2020

Answers to frequently asked questions from the September 18 webinars for the Coronavirus Relief Funds small business and nonprofit organization applications are now posted on Kane County's relief fund webpage.

Interested applicants should visit Kane County's Coronavirus Relief Fund page at <https://www.countyofkane.org/Pages/CRF.aspx>.

Kane County is accepting applications for small businesses, chambers of commerce and nonprofit organizations for Coronavirus Relief Funds. The deadline to apply is 2 p.m. Oct. 2, 2020.

The U.S. Department of Treasury allocated more than $92 million in coronavirus relief funds to Kane County through the CARES Act to ease the impact of the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic in our communities. Of that, $8 million has been allocated for small businesses and chambers of commerce grants, and $2 million in grants for nonprofit organizations.

In addition to the FAQ answers, information about the funding program and how to apply, as well as recordings of the webinars about the application process, also are available on the program's webpage. The page is updated as new information becomes available.

Please direct any questions about the Kane County Coronavirus Relief Fund to CRF@co.kane.il.us, and allow three business days for a reply.
