ELGIN MAN GUILTY OF CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE

June 29, 2021

A Kane County jury has found Jacob Headtke guilty of the offense of aggravated criminal sexual abuse, Class 2 felony.

Kane County Assistant State's Attorneys David Belshan and Katy Flannagan presented evidence that between Oct. 1, 2015, and June 1, 2016, Headtke sexually abused the victim. Headtke knew the victim, who was younger than 13 years old.

The jury deliberated for less than an hour before reaching the verdict.

Kane County Judge David P. Kliment set Headtke's next court appearance for 1:30 p.m. July 30, 2021, in Courtroom 305 at the Kane County Judicial Center for motions and sentencing. Headtke faces a sentence of between 3 and 7 years of imprisonment in the Illinois Department of Corrections, or probation.

In addition, Headtke must register for life as a sexual offender in accordance with the Illinois Sexual Offender Registration Act.

Headtke remains free on bond.

ASA Belshan said:

"I am so proud of this child victim, who showed a great deal of courage in confronting this child predator to keep him from molesting other children. Thanks to the victim's mother, who acted quickly in reporting Mr. Headtke's crimes, and thanks to the Kane County Child Advocacy Center for its work in investigating this case."

Jacob Headtke: Age 31 (d.o.b. 12-14-1989), of the 600 block of Bent Street, Elgin, Illinois. Case No. 16CF1916.
