CARY WOMAN FOUND GUILTY FOR BATTERING HER MOTHER

November 14, 2023

RE: Rebecca L. Wise, Age 38, (d.o.b. 9/29/1985), of the 200 block of North 1st Street, Cary, Illinois. Case number 2022CF2191.

Kane County State's Attorney Jamie L. Mosser announces that a jury has found Rebecca L. Wise guilty of the offenses of:

- Aggravated domestic battery, great bodily harm – Class 2 felony (1 count)
- Aggravated battery, victim 60 years or older – Class 3 felony (2 counts)

Assistant State's Attorneys Jacki Kliment and Amanda Busljeta presented the following evidence in court:

On November 22, 2022, Wise entered her mother's home and kicked her mother in the face, breaking her orbital bone. The victim was older than 60 at the time of the offense.

Judge Alice C. Tracy set Wise's next court date for December 13, 2023, at 9 a.m. in Courtroom 113 at the Kane County Judicial Center for setting of motions and sentencing. Wise faces a sentence of three to seven years of imprisonment in the Illinois Department of Corrections or up to 48 months of probation.

ASA Kliment said: "Relationships within families can be difficult at times. However, a tumultuous relationship with a family member is never an excuse to physically harm someone. The victim showed immense courage in confronting her daughter in court and finally getting the chance to tell her side of the story. My thanks to ASA Busljeta and victim advocate Sheila Gray for their outstanding work on this case."
