ELGIN MAN SENTENCED TO 36 YEARS FOR MURDERING WIFE

RE: Victor H. Ayllon: Age 38 (d.o.b. 11-08-1985), of the 300 block of Heine Avenue, Elgin, Illinois. Case No. 2021CF1252.

St. Charles, Ill. - Kane County State's Attorney Jamie L. Mosser announces that Victor H. Ayllon has been sentenced to 36 years of imprisonment in the Illinois Department of Corrections.

On April 25, 2024, Victor H. Ayllon pled guilty to the offense of first-degree murder, Class M felony. The court accepted the plea.

State's Attorney Jamie Mosser stated the following facts in court:

On July 12, 2021, a 4-year-old boy was found during the evening hours walking alone at the intersection of Lawrence Ave. and N. Aldine Ave. in Elgin. Upon investigation, officers were able to determine his address in the 300 block of Heine Avenue in Elgin. Officers went to that location and found a 3-year-old boy in the home. They further found the body of Wendy Ayllon on the floor. The victim was unresponsive and believed to be deceased. The victim was the mother of both the 3-year-old and the 4-year-old.

Investigators then attempted to locate her husband, the defendant, Victor Ayllon. They found him at the home of his parents with faint marks on his wrists. He was taken to the hospital and subsequently released to the police. Investigators learned that the victim in this case had picked up the defendant in the early morning hours on July 12. They arrived back at the home at 2:16 a.m. The defendant left the home via car at 3:16 a.m. A camera within the home captured the sound of arguing and the victim screaming followed by a thud during this time period.

The defendant was interviewed and admitted that he and the victim had been in an argument where the defendant accused her of infidelity (no evidence of which was ever revealed to corroborate this) and the defendant's drug addiction. The defendant then strangled the victim to death and left her body with the two minor children.

An autopsy confirmed that the victim died of manual strangulation.

In accordance with Illinois law, Ayllon must serve the full sentence. He receives credit for 1,074 days served in the Kane County jail.

SA Mosser said: "The defendant's heinous actions, which resulted in the tragic death of his wife and the abandonment of their two young children with her body, are beyond reprehensible. His complete disregard for human life and parental responsibility has rightfully resulted in a significant prison sentence. This sentence brings some measure of justice for Wendy Ayllon and her family. Our thoughts remain with the young children who have been deeply affected by this traumatic event. I extend my gratitude to Elgin Detectives Chris Hughes and Chris Valle, and the Elgin Police Department, for their diligent investigation that led to this conviction and sentencing."
