Sentenced to One Year in Separate Sexual Abuse Case

RE: Isaiah Fields: Age 24 (d.o.b. 07-06-2001), of the 5000 block of W. Maple Ave, Chicago, Illinois. Case No. 2024CF974, 2023CF2346

St. Charles, Ill. - Kane County State's Attorney Jamie L. Mosser announces that, in 2024CF974, Isaiah Fields has pled guilty to the offense of aggravated criminal sexual assault, Class X felony. Judge John A. Barsanti accepted the plea and set Fields' next court appearance for March 14, 2025, at 1:30 p.m. in Courtroom 319 at the Kane County Judicial Center for sentencing.

In case 2024CF974, Assistant State's Attorney Matthew Rodgers stated the following facts in court: On or about August 1, 2023 through September 5, 2023, Isaiah Fields sexually assaulted the victim, who he knew had a severe or profound intellectual disability and was unable to give consent. The victim was a resident of Marklund Home in Geneva. It was discovered in April of 2024 that the victim was nearly fully pregnant, and the victim later gave birth. The Kane County Sheriff's Office conducted an investigation that involved securing multiple buccal swab DNA tests from current and previous male employees. After Fields' DNA test came back positive, the Sheriff secured a sealed order for his arrest.

He faces a non probationable six to 30 years of imprisonment in the Illinois Department of Corrections.

In a second case, 2023CF2346, Kane County State's Attorney Jamie L. Mosser announces that Isaiah Fields has agreed to a sentence of one year of imprisonment in the Illinois Department of Corrections in exchange for a guilty plea to the offense of criminal sexual abuse, Class 4 felony. Judge John A. Barsanti accepted the plea.

In case 2023CF2346, Assistant State's Attorney Matthew Rodgers stated the following facts in court: On September 27, 2023, Fields committed an act of sexual conduct with a victim whom he knew was unable to consent at the time.

Fields' sentence in 2023CF2346 will run consecutively to the sentence handed down in 2024CF974 at the March 14 sentencing hearing. In addition to the prison term, Fields must register for life as a sexual offender in accordance with the Illinois Sexual Offender Registration Act.

Fields remains in custody at the Kane County jail.

State's Attorney Mosser said: "Mr. Fields preyed on vulnerable individuals who were unable to defend themselves, and his actions are unconscionable. With today's guilty pleas, he is being held accountable for the profound harm he caused. I want to thank the investigators and assistant state's attorneys who worked tirelessly to ensure that this defendant is held accountable for his despicable actions. Our office will continue to fight to protect the most vulnerable members of our community and seek justice on their behalf at every opportunity."

ASA Rodgers said: "Thanks to the dedicated work of the Kane County Sheriff's Office and the victim's caregivers, we were able to uncover the full extent of the harm caused by this defendant. I appreciate the victim's family for their patience and trust throughout this process. My thanks to everyone involved in bringing this case to this point, ensuring accountability and justice for the victims."
