Former St. Charles Driving Instructor Found Guilty of Sexual Assault

*RE: Paul Bocska: Age 58 (d.o.b. 06-17-1966), of the 2000 block of Marlowe Blvd., St. Charles, Illinois.
Case No. 2023CF1090.*

St. Charles, Ill. - Kane County State's Attorney Jamie L. Mosser announces that a jury has found Paul Bocska guilty of the following offenses:

- Criminal Sexual Assault, Class 1 felony (4 counts)
- Aggravated Criminal Sexual Abuse, Class 1 felony (4 counts)
- Aggravated Criminal Sexual Abuse, Class 2 felony (8 counts)

Assistant State's Attorneys Matthew Rodgers and Amanda Busljeta presented the following facts in court: On multiple occasions in April and May of 2021, the defendant sexually abused the victim. Bocska had been hired as the victim's driving instructor through his company, Drive Now, located in St. Charles and knew the victim in his capacity as their driving instructor.

The defendant failed to appear for his jury trial on April 17, 2025 and a warrant was issued for his arrest. The trial took place in Bocska's absence and the arrest warrant remains active. Anyone with information as to the defendant's whereabouts should contact the St. Charles Police Department or the Kane County State's Attorney's Office. Bocska had previously been released from custody on May 25, 2023 after posting a $50,000 (10%) cash bond.

The next court date is set for June 4, 2025 at 1:30 p.m. in Courtroom 305 at the Kane County Judicial Center for motions and sentencing.

ASA Matt Rodgers said: "The courage of this victim stands in stark contrast to the cowardice of Mr. Bocska. My thanks to the victim and family, as well as Detectives Murawski and Schuessler of the St. Charles Police Department, ASA Amanda Busljeta, and victim advocate Sheila Gray. I'm encouraging anyone with information about Bocska to come forward so that we he can ensure Bocska is taken into custody and held accountable for these horrendous crimes."
